

Canaan

Maha Ibrahim

General Partner / West Coast
Since 2000

Maha spots technology trends early and partners closely with her companies to drive growth and exits. Since 2000, she has invested in a range of companies with current focus areas in consumer technology, enterprise/cloud and marketplaces. A champion and mentor of women in STEM, Maha is passionate about funding and raising the profiles of female founders and entrepreneurs and is a founding member of All Raise.

Maha was one of the first investors to recognize the potential of social gaming. She led Canaan's seed investment in Kabam, the world's largest developer of multiplayer social games, which was acquired by Netmarble and today is an investor and board member of GenG, a global esports organization. She is also known for her investments in e-commerce companies The RealReal (REAL) Cuyana, Lily AI and ManiMe, on whose boards she serves.

Maha also focuses on investments in data infrastructure and storage with recent investments in Agile Stacks, apisec.ai and Komprise.

Her previous enterprise investments include Metacloud (acquired by Cisco), Virsto (acquired by VMware), and SenSage (acquired by KEYW Corporation).

Maha is a trustee at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and a frequent lecturer at UC Berkeley's Haas School of Business and Stanford's Graduate School of Business. She holds a B.A. in Economics and an M.A. in Sociology from Stanford University and a Ph.D. in Economics from MIT.

About Canaan

Canaan is an early stage venture capital firm that invests in entrepreneurs with visionary ideas. With $5B under management, a diversified fund and over 195 exits to date, Canaan has invested in some of the world's leading technology and healthcare companies over the past 31+ years. Canaan's focus areas include fintech, enterprise/cloud, marketplaces, frontier tech, biopharma, digital health and medtech. To learn more about our people and our portfolio, please visit canaan.com.

